RIWI Announces Appointment of Officer, Opening of Vancouver Office

Toronto, ON – RIWI Corp. (CSE: RIW) (the “Company” or “RIWI”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Alton Ing as an Officer of the Company holding the position of Chief Technology Officer, effective immediately. Mr. Ing will also lead the new Vancouver, British Columbia office of RIWI, supervising software developers and data analysts to service a growing client base.

Mr. Ing has worked with RIWI since 2009 and, as head of our technology team, leads software development, network infrastructure, data processing, data integration, data security and data integrity for all of RIWI’s global data collection, predictive analytics and global message testing.

“We are excited to appoint Mr. Ing as an Officer of the Company,” said Mr. Neil Seeman, RIWI’s Chief Executive Officer. “Mr. Ing built the prototype of the global RIWI platform in 2009 that led to the creation of our proprietary data collection tools and dashboard systems. This technology is now recognized as a best-in class, peer-reviewed, privacy-compliant and unique engine to support clients seeking to understand changing population sentiment and risk anywhere in the world,” he added.

About RIWI

RIWI is a global survey technology, global messaging and global predictive analytics company using its proprietary, patented methods to capture a continuous stream of privacy-compliant opinion data in any region of the world. RIWI product offerings include Information-as-a-Service (IaaS) and custom data solutions. RIWI’s interactive dashboards and RIWI’s scientifically validated opinion data, otherwise unavailable in the global data marketplace, help global corporations, multilateral organizations, and government agencies predict, monitor and adapt to changing citizen needs and behavior patterns, and help clients adjust to new risks and sentiment shifts occurring in all countries.
